

Dr. Suresh Chari

Former Director & Medical Education & Technology (MET), Professor of Biochemistry

Joint Secretary, AHPE | Executive Committee Member, AHPE

Institutional Affiliation

Former Director & MET, Professor of Biochemistry, Government Medical College, Indira Gandhi Government Medical College, NKP Salve Institute of Medical Sciences, Nagpur; J.J. Hospital, Mumbai; and AMC, Mauritius

Professional Experience

Over 40 years of experience in Biochemistry, Medical Education and Faculty Development.

Contributions to AHPE

Dr. Chari has served on the AHPE Executive Committee for three terms and currently serves as Joint Secretary. He has contributed extensively to faculty development, communication skills, leadership training, mentorship, and student soft-skills development. He has also contributed over 40 publications in medical education.

Areas of Expertise

- Faculty Development
- Communication Skills & Professionalism
- Leadership Training
- Mentorship Programmes
- Student Soft Skills & Personality Development
- Medical Education Unit Capacity Building

Institutional & Educational Contributions

Dr. Chari has been instrumental in establishing and strengthening Medical Education Units at NKP Salve Institute of Medical Sciences, Nagpur and AMC, Mauritius. His initiatives include developing a communication skills laboratory, leadership certificate course, student mentorship programme, nursing hospitality training, resident PPT competitions, and public speaking and presentation skills programmes for faculty and residents.

He currently serves as Director of Attitudes – Charis Personality Grooming Centre, Nagpur, focusing on soft skills, communication and leadership development.